

PROGRAMMA di LINGUA E CIVILTÀ INGLESE

CLASSE : I SEZIONE: C
ANNO SCOLASTICO: 2020/21
DOCENTE: Petrillo Maria Luisa

Dal libro di testo: AAVV INTO FOCUS A2 PEARSON

Welcome module

- Subject pronouns;
- Be: simple present
- Some idiomatic uses of the verb be
- Definite and indefinite articles
- Demonstratives
- Giving instructions: Imperatives
- The plural of nouns
- Question words
- Position of adjectives
- Introducing oneself
- Giving personal information
- Greetings
- Countries and nationalities
- Numbers 1-100
- Classroom language
- Classroom objects and subjects
- Asking and telling people the time
- Family members
- Months of the year
- Possessive adjectives and pronouns
- Have: present simple
- Some idiomatic uses of the verb have
- The possessive case
- Asking and answering questions about possessions
- Describing people (Physical appearance, qualities)
- Offers and requests with can
- Prepositions of place
- There is / There are
- Some / Any/No/None
- How much/How many?

Module A

- The present simple :
affirmative, negative and interrogative forms, short answers
Adverbs of frequency
Frequency expressions
- Asking for and giving information about routines and habits

- Free time activities
- Ordinal numbers, dates, seasons
- Discussing likes and dislikes
- Love, like or hate + Gerund
- Like + a lot / very much / not much / not ... at all
- Question tags
- Object pronouns
- Double object construction
- Countable and uncountable nouns
- Too, enough
- Translation of molto, troppo and abbastanza
- Can / can't: to express ability and inability to ask for permission
- The present progressive: present actions and future meaning
- Present progressive v Present simple
- Food and drinks
- There is / There are + Countable / Uncountable nouns

Module B

- The past simple of be
- Was / were born
- In, on, at in expressions of time
- The past simple of regular and irregular verbs
- Talking about past events and completed actions
- A little / a few / little / few
- Comparatives and superlatives

Module C

- Talking about future plans and intentions
- Present continuous with future meaning v be going to
- Talking about future or imaginary situations
- Expressing purpose
- The Simple Future
- Future clauses

L'insegnante
Maria Luisa Petrillo

